ABOUT THE COMPANY

Navi Finserv Private Limited (formerly known as Chaitanya Rural Intermediation Development Services Private Limited) (the “Company”) is a private limited company incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956. The Company is registered with the Reserve Bank of India as a Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Non-Banking Finance Company (NBFC-ND-SI).

PREAMBLE

This policy on related party transactions (the “Policy”) has been framed in compliance with the provisions pertaining to related party transactions under the Companies Act, 2013 (the “Act”), the rules made thereunder and the applicable provisions of the Master Direction - Non-Banking Financial Company - Systemically Important Non-Deposit taking Company and Deposit taking Company (Reserve Bank) Directions, 2016 (collectively, the “Applicable Law”).

The Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) has duly adopted the following Policy. The Audit committee and / or the Board, shall review the Policy on a periodic basis and may amend this policy from time to time, as required.

OBJECTIVE

The Policy is aimed at setting out a governance framework for handling related party transactions of the Company in accordance with the Applicable Law. Related party transactions can sometimes present a potential or actual conflict of interest for the Company and therefore, the Company is required to procure necessary approvals before undertaking any such transactions and make relevant disclosures as prescribed under Applicable Law. This Policy, therefore, is intended to serve as a guidance document for all stakeholders in order to identify and benchmark transactions between the Company and its related parties and deal with such transactions in compliance with Applicable Law. Accordingly, related party transactions may be entered into by the Company only in accordance with this Policy, as amended from time to time.

POLICY

I. APPROVAL OF AUDIT COMMITTEE

1. All related party transactions shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee. However, the Audit Committee may grant an omnibus approval for related party transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to the following conditions:
  - (a) The Audit Committee shall, after obtaining approval from the board, lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with this Policy in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature;
  - (b) The Audit Committee satisfies itself about the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company;
  - (c) Such omnibus approval shall specify (i) the name/s of the related party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into; (ii) the indicative base price/ current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price, if any; and (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.
2. Where the need for a related party transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, the Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding Rs. 1 crore per transaction.
3. Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding 1 financial year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of such financial year.
4. An omnibus approval shall not be made for transactions in respect of selling or disposing of the undertaking of the Company and/or any other transaction the Audit Committee may deem not fit for omnibus approval.
5. Further, with respect to related party transactions between a holding company and its wholly owned subsidiary, the requirement for an audit committee approval shall apply only for such Transactions (as defined below) between the Company and its related parties as are contemplated under Section 188.

II. APPROVAL OF THE BOARD

In addition to approval from the Audit Committee, the Company shall be required to obtain the prior approval of the Board for entering into any contract or arrangement with a related party with respect to the transactions mentioned in the table below (“Transactions”).

III. APPROVAL OF SHAREHOLDERS

1. Where the Transactions exceed certain threshold limits as mentioned below (“Threshold Limits”), the consent of the shareholders by way of an ordinary resolution would also need to be obtained, in addition to approval from the Audit Committee and the Board.

#	TRANSACTIONS	THRESHOLD LIMITS
(i)	Sale, purchase or supply of any goods or material, directly or through appointment of agent.	≥ 10 % of the turnover of the Company
(ii)	Selling or otherwise disposing of or buying property of any kind, directly or through appointment of agent	≥ 10 % of the net worth of the Company
(iii)	Leasing of property any kind	≥ 10 % of the turnover of the Company
(iv)	Availing or rendering of any services, directly or through appointment of agent	≥ 10 % of the turnover of the Company
[The aggregate value of all transactions undertaken during the financial year within an individual category would be considered for the purpose of the limits specified for categories mentioned in (i) to (iv) hereinabove]
(v)	Where the contract is for appointment to any office or place of profit in the Company, its subsidiary company or associate company	Where monthly remuneration > INR 2,50,000.
(vi)	Where the contract is for remuneration for underwriting the subscription of any securities or derivatives thereof, of the company	Where remuneration > 1 % of the net worth.

2. The requirement for obtaining shareholders’ approval will not apply to Transactions entered into between the Company and its wholly owned subsidiary whose accounts are consolidated with that of the Company and placed before the shareholders at the general meeting for approval.
3. As a general exception, for Transactions which are entered into by the Company with its related parties in its ‘ordinary course of business’ and on an ‘arm’s length basis’, no approval of the Board or the shareholders would be required; however, the requirement of approval from the Audit Committee would continue to prevail.
  - An arm’s length transaction is defined under the Act to mean a transaction between two related parties that is conducted as if they were unrelated, so that there is no conflict of interest.
  - In the absence of a concrete definition for the phrase ‘ordinary course of business’ under the Act, the following non-exhaustive factors may be considered to assess whether a Transaction falls under the ordinary course of business of the Company:
    - Whether the activity is covered in the objects clause of the Memorandum of Association;

- Whether the activity is in furtherance of the business of the Company;
- Whether the activity is normal or otherwise routine for the particular business undertaken by the Company;
- Whether the activity is repetitive/frequent;
- Whether the income, if any, earned from such activity/transaction is treated as business income in the Company's books of accounts;
- Whether the transactions are common in the particular industry the Company operates in;
- Whether there is any historical practice to conduct such activities;
- The financial scale of the activity with regard to the operations of the Company's business;
- Revenue generated by the activity; and
- Resources committed to the activity.

These are not exhaustive criteria and the Company will have to assess each Transaction considering its specific nature and circumstances.

4. The Audit Committee shall test each related party transaction on materiality, arm's length and ordinary course of business. The Audit Committee will be responsible for overall monitoring and supervision of the framework pertaining to related party transactions in the Company.

IV. The approval mechanism set out in this Policy and the Act has been captured in a nutshell hereinbelow:

#	Particulars	Audit Committee Approval	Board Approval	Shareholders' Approval
1.	Transaction in the ordinary course of business AND at arm's length basis	YES  Omnibus Approval may be granted	NO	NO
2.	Transaction within the Threshold Limits and either not in the ordinary course of business OR not at arm's length basis	YES  Omnibus Approval may be granted	YES	NO
3.	Transaction exceeding the Threshold Limit and either not in the ordinary course of business OR not at arm's length basis	YES  Omnibus Approval may be granted	YES	YES

V. RATIFICATION OF TRANSACTIONS:

In the event the Company becomes aware of any related party transaction involving an amount not exceeding Rs. 1 crore that has not been approved in accordance with this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee, which shall, basis independent evaluation, ratify, revise, terminate or suggest such other options with respect to such related party transaction. If such transaction is not ratified by the Audit Committee within 3 months from the date of the transaction, such transaction shall be voidable at the option of the Audit Committee.

Where any contract or arrangement is entered into by a director or any other employee, without obtaining the consent of the Board or approval by a resolution in the general meeting and if it is not ratified by the Board or, as the case may be, by the shareholders at a meeting within three months from the date on which such contract or arrangement was entered into, such contract or arrangement shall be voidable at the option of the Board or, as the case may be, of the shareholders; and if the contract or arrangement is with a related party to any director, or is authorised by any other director, the directors concerned shall indemnify the company against any loss incurred by it.

VI. DISCLOSURES OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company shall make the relevant disclosures with respect to the related party transactions of the Company in its Annual Report as per Paragraph A of Schedule V of the LODR Regulations and the Act as well as in the financial statements in accordance with the Act and the applicable accounting standards and maintain such registers as required under the provisions of the Act.
